No.76/PPEMS/Transparency/2014 Dated 14/10/2014 & No.76/EE/G/2014
Dated 22/10/2014 of the Election Commission of India.

Sir,

I would like to invite your attention to the aforesaid instructions of the Election Commission of India.

As per the said instructions, you have to submit three reports before this office as per the following schedule:

- 1) Contribution Reports – within 30th September every year or such date, as extended by CBDT, for filing income tax return.
- 2) Annual Audit Account – within 31st October every year and
- 3) Statement of Election Expenditure – within 75 days of completion of Assembly Election and 90 days of completion of Lok Sabha Election. For Lok Sabha Election, 2014 due date was 26th August, 2014. In this case this may further be noted that if there is no expenditure related to the election, a Nil report in the prescribed format shall have to be submitted.

Although aforesaid instructions of the Commission was brought to your notice earlier but as per the office records, it appears that only following three political parties have submitted partial reports :

- a) All India Tafsili Party-- only Contribution Report and Annual Audit Report. Election expenditure report not submitted.
- b) Democratic Socialist Party-- only annual audit report. Contribution Report and Election Expenditure Statement not submitted.
- c) Rashtriya Janasachetan Party (RJP) -- only Election Expenditure Report. Contribution Report and Annual Audit Report have not submitted.

Rests of the political parties have not submitted any report.

Accordingly, all concerned are requested to kindly submit the aforesaid reports immediately to this office, so that we can take further necessary action in this regard.

All connected instructions of the Election Commission of India under reference are again enclosed herewith for your ready reference.

Yours faithfully,

Encl: As stated
